"Uncle Dummy", Amazing Prophet To Visit Here

"UNCLE DUMMY," Prophet

"Uncle Dummy", a prophet of widening international attention, comes to Indianapolis Saturday to continue an amazing series of predictions of things to come, both good and bad.

The Rev. R. P. G. Pennington, Grand Rapids, Mich., issued a number of predictions Jan. 2 this year, most of which have come true.

He has documentary proof of prophecies made at that time which have come true, including: Devastating floods in Kentucky and Virginia;

Tornadoes in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and North and South Carolina;

Two earthquakes in California; Floods in Texas.

AN UPRISING and overthrow of the government in Russia in 1958 has been one of his long-range prophecies.

His prediction that the present government of France (Jan. 2, 1957) would fall, is now in process of being written into history. Only several days ago Premier Mollet lost a vote of confidence in the French Assembly and handed in his resignation.

In a letter to the President of the United States, Uncle Dummy gave dates and details of prophecies involving disasters to various populous centers, both north and south.

And who is this strange man calling himself "Uncle Dummy"?

Spicy at 84 years of age, the Prophet is something of a biological phenomenon. He was born

Negro Church To Join White Methodist Group

By DAVID M. JORDAN, D.D.

TOLEDO, Ohio—One of the highlights of the 88th session of the Lexington Annual Conference of the Methodist Church was the transfer of Simpson Methodist Church, (Negro) Steubenville, Ohio, to the all-white Northeast Ohio Conference.

Sessions were held May 14-19 and Braden Church was host to the conference.

Bishop Matthew W. Clair, Jr., St. Louis, head of the Lexington Conference, observed that the transfer, if approved by the all-white conference, should become effective before 1960.

Dr. Theodore A. Mayer, superintendent of the all-white Steubenville District, who invited the Simpson Church, stated earlier that he thought the change could be completed over a period of one

James M. Patton, Mammoth Agent, Wins High Honor

James M. Patton, salesman on the Indianapolis District of the Mammoth Life & Accident Insurance company, was one of the two agents of Negro companies along with 102 other agents to win places on the 35th annual All-Star Honor Roll.

This annual selection is made by the Insurance Salesman, a national magazine published in the interest of life, accident and health field workers. The honorees were chosen from a total of 234 nominees.

Mr. Patton has been with the Mammoth Life 11 years. His 1956 achievement which placed him on the Honor Roll was based on a $56.70 weekly premium increase and the writing of ordinary life policies on 90 lives for $200,000.00.

In providing this much protection for Negro families in a year's time, Mr. Patton has earned not only the sincere congratulations of his company, and his local associates, but also the high esteem of the public generally.

He lives with his wife Edith at 3537 Prospect.

Tell How He Saved Boy

MRS. BENJAMIN HOOPER is shown outside her home in Mastic Beach, L. I., New York, as she thanked Sam Woodson, the rescue worker who made the final breakthrough to reach her son, Benjamin Jr., 7. Woodson said it was "the greatest thrill of my life" when he got the boy in his arms and found he was alive after 24 hours in a well shaft dug by the boy's father. (International)

"I'm No Hero," Says Rescuer Of Trapped Boy

By RICHARD A. JACKSON
For ANP

MANORVILLE, N. Y. (ANP)—The hero of the biggest rescue story ever to break on Long Island is Sam Woodson, construction worker.

It was he who pulled 7-year-old Benny Hooper from a sandy entrapment at the bottom of a 24-foot well where the boy had been encased for 24 hours from Thursday evening last week.

The lad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Kent Hooper, Sr., fell into the hole, which his father had just completed digging in the rear of the family's home at Manorville, 85 miles east of New York City.

He remained wedged at the bottom of the shaft, being given up as dead by most observers after 12 hours, until the 39-year-old Woodson reached him from an indirectly sunken shaft and shouted up the news—"He's alive."

When interviewed the happy hero said: "I didn't talk to the boy down there. I talked to God."

It was the second time Woodson had saved a person from a sandy tomb. Twenty years ago, in his native Virginia, with a rope tied to his ankles, he let himself be lowered into a deep well casing so he could grab the hair of 3-year-old Betty Robertson and pull her to safety.

Though all acclaimed him as the hero of "The Miracle of Manorville," Woodson modestly acclaimed his fellow rescuers with the Stutz Construction company.

"I'M NO HERO. IF anyone's a hero, it's Mike Stutz, he's a great man," he stated.

Member of a four-man relay team, Woodson had crawled on his belly in a tight, dark tunnel, clawing at the sand to reach young Benny. He had been on the job 12 hours and it was his turn again.

"I finally got through," he said, "and I reached Benny's hand. It was cold. Then there was a slide and he disappeared. And came down and drove me back. He boy was burned again and he didn't have the protection of the pipes."

"There must have been a lot of prayers," he stated, "cause something happened down there."

30,000 Demonstrate At Prayer Pilgrimage

BY ALICE A. DUNNIGAN

WASHINGTON—(ANP)—The nation has never witnessed such impressive demonstration as was staged in Washington, Friday, in commemoration of the third anniversary of the Supreme Court's desegregation decision.

Approximately 30,000 people from all sections of the country gathered at Lincoln Memorial in a Prayer Pilgrimage for Freedom.

The enthusiastic crowd sat, or stood, in silent reverence for three solid hours listening to prayers, songs and speeches of the status of the Negro in this country today and on his hope and aspirations for the future.

There was not a hand-clap throughout the services, but frequent showers of handkerchiefs and pennant waving expressions of approval to what the speakers were saying.

While the pilgrimage was supposed to be religious rather than political, it was Congressman Charles C. Diggs, Democrat of Michigan, who reminded them that prayer and shouting was not enough to secure their rights for which they are fighting.

There must be some political action, said Diggs. He urged those people coming from areas where there are restrictions and economic pressures should unite because unity gives power.

CONGRESSMAN Adam Clayton Powell, Democrat of New York, called for a "third force" in American life to turn the tide from hypocrisy to honesty and from flouting the law to respect for the law.

He lashed out at both political parties for their dishonesty and increasing hypocrisy. He criticized the Republican party for refusing to exercise the massive majority and prestige of the executive office as it should. And scored the

Sentenced To Life For Kidnap

A jury in Criminal Court 1 found Ernest Campbell, 28, 5005 E. 64th guilty of kidnapping Tuesday night.

Judge Scott McDonald sentenced him to life imprisonment as mandatory under Indiana law.

Campbell was accused of the abduction of Miss Columbine Stevens, 24, as she left a supermarket at Allisonville Road and Fall Creek Boulevard Nov. 26, 1956.

Miss Stevens testified Campbell was hidden in her car when she came out of the market, and made her drive to a lonely spot in the country where he attempted to attack her.

A charge of rape is pending against Campbell.

A fearless freedom fighter from the depths of Mississippi will speak here Sunday afternoon in an effort to help the Indianapolis NAACP branch reach its goal of 10,000 members.

Mr. Darden was the last NAACP state president of Mississippi before the organization was outlawed by the state legislature. He is described as a moving speaker who will tell of the persecution being endured by Negroes in the Deep South. His subject is "Terror in Dixie."

Proprietor of the Darden Photo Service in Meridian, Mr. Darden is also chairman of the Meridian-Lauderdale County Democratic Club. He has been a member of the NAACP since 1940, and is chairman of the youth work committee of the Meridian branch. He is a member of the Methodist Church.

Seek Sale Of Lockefield To Private Group

Lockefield Gardens will be sold to a private group who will be obligated to operate it as a low rent housing project, if a bill introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressman Charles B. Brownson becomes a law.

The Brownson bill, introduced Monday of this week, will authorize the Public Housing Authority to sell the 748 housing project to the Board for Fundamental Education, a group of wealthy and influential community leaders of Indianapolis and Texas.

Rep. Brownson will appear before the Citizens Committee to Save Lockefield at a meeting on Friday, May 31 on the Central YWCA at Noon to answer questions and discuss important considerations in the proposed sale of Lockefield to the Board for Fundamental Education.

Declaring himself as favoring city ownership of the project as his first choice, Rep. Brownson said "his intent in offering the legislation is to protect the interests of the tenants who occupy the 738 units of Lockefield Gardens and of those who may in the future occupy this low-rent housing project which was originally built with taxpayers' money for this specific purpose."

REP. BROWNSON, Indianapolis, said he acted after the Mayor Philip Bait turned down the offer of the Public Housing Authority that the city take over and continue operation of Lockefield as a low-rent housing project, with the alternative that the project would be sold to private investors.

A sharp increase in rents would result in the latter case, many community leaders believe with resulting great hardship to the present tenants and the Negro community generally.

Brownson said adoption of his measure now in Congress would prevent such an unwelcome development.

THE BOARD for Fundamental Education, a federally chartered non-profit corporation, would be enabled by the measure to include operation of Lockefield in its authority.

This group, devoted to expanding a self-help program among economically handicapped centers, now works through center located at

Negro Vendors Not Hired For Speedway Race

By CHARLES PRESTON

BU-L-L-E-T-I-N
Two Negro vendors were hired by Sportservice, Inc., for the Speedway race after the Recorder and a local civic leader called the matter to the attention of Robert Sobel, the Sportservice manager, on Thursday afternoon.

There will be no Negroes among the 250 refreshment vendors at next week's internationally famed 400-mile Speedway race, it was confirmed by the management of Sportservice, Inc., Thursday.

Whether this is due to discrimination in hiring or to the tardiness of Negroes in applying for vendor's jobs is a question at this writing. The matter was brought to The Recorder's attention after a complaint to the NAACP.

Robert Sobel, New York, top Sportservice official at the Speedway, firmly denied that Negro applicants were discriminated against.

"Such definitely isn't the case," Sobel said. "If they had applied in time, they would have been hired. Five or six have applied during the past week, but our vendor force was already completed."

"This is a 5-day operation, and if we added more vendors nobody would make any money."

THE SPORTSERVICE organization nationally and Mr. Sobel in particular have a good reputation for fair employment.

Sobel is credited with bringing

'Kicker Kicked Out'

CLINTON, Tenn.—(ANP)—The tables were turned last week when the rabid segregationist, John Kasper, was on the receiving end of the shoe heel instead of giving it.

The devout racist and white supremacy advocate was kicked out of the precinct of his own kind when a Klux Klan rally wanted no part of him and booted him out of a meeting.

Sheriff Glad Woodward said Kasper was ordered to leave the KKK rally because he was not invited. It was reported Kasper was later kicked out of a nearby restaurant.

Naptowners Enlist In Battle Of Gettysburg

BY CHARLES PRESTON

GETTYSBURG, Pa.—Members of the Indianapolis Civil War Round Table who toured Gettysburg battlefield at the same time as President Eisenhower and British Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery recently tended to agree with the two World War comrades' criticism of Gen. Robert E. Lee.

Montgomery was reported to have said that both Lee and Union commander Gen. George G. Meade should have been "sacked" after the battle. The British leader labeled Pickett's famous charge, which was ordered by Lee, "monstrous."

According to reports the President joined in the criticism of Lee, but wouldn't go along with Montgomery in declaring the Southern hero a worse commander than Meade.

"Look, I live here," Lee was reported to have said. "I represent both the North and the South."

BY A COINCIDENCE, the Indianapolis group discussed the same question at a round-table session Saturday evening. No vote was taken, but a majority of the second-guessers appeared to agree that Lee made a mistake in fighting at Gettysburg.

"Lee was overconfident. He had come to believe that his army was invincible," was one explanation.

Acknowledging that Lee's action appeared foolhardy because of the strong Union position, one member said the Southern general had come North to fight and could not delay a battle longer.

"The terrain was not decisive, because the relative strengths of the two armies had changed and Lee would have been defeated anywhere in the North," was another view.

As for Meade, there was general agreement that his chief virtue was inactivity. This quality prevented him from following up the victory, but it also kept him from interfering with brilliant moves of his subordinates during the battle.

THIS REPORTER did not see the President and Montgomery, but Alan T. Nolan, secretary of the Indianapolis round table, caught a glimpse of the famous pair on Sunday.

The group was attending a lecture Saturday morning at the postoffice when a plane was heard. The speaker paused to observe, "That is the President."

In climbing to the fourth landing of the observation tower on Culp's Hill — reputed to be the best vantage-point from which to view the battlefield — Mr. Eisenhower showed more courage than this reporter, who is also a member of the "Coronary Club." We'll certainly follow his example when we go back.

WHILE THE PRESIDENT and "Monty" toured the famous site in a couple of hours, the Indianapolis group took a day and a half for the same purpose. One man found a minie ball in a freshly-plowed field.

From the same field our 14-year-old son brought home a rusty nail which may or may not have been in the battle. Muttering that "there are too many Confederate caps around here," he blossomed out the second day in a large Union cavalry hat.

Well worth while was the Cyclorama, a huge round painting depicting the battle. We noticed two figures of Negroes leading the horses of officers near the front lines.

THE INDIANAPOLIS Civil War Round Table is one of more than 80 such groups across the nation, composed of men and women who make a first-hand study of the Civil War their hobby.

Gettysburg is certainly the grandest and most significant historical site this writer has ever visited. The round table group was distressed to learn that the famous battlefield is threatened with encroachment through private land purchases.

It was the unanimous opinion that America must preserve this glorious field of her heritage, where slavery was forever defeated and the Union preserved.

BOY REFUSES TO WASH DISHES; SHOT BY DAD

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A 16-year-old boy who reportedly refused to wash dishes, was wounded by his father after a quarrel in their home, sheriff's deputies reported this week.

James Jackson, son of Walter Jackson, 45, of nearby Swanton, was treated at a hospital for a wound in the leg. His mother and a younger brother said the father shot James as he walked out of the house.

The father, charged with shooting with intent to kill, is being held under $5,000 bond for grand jury action.

Attucks Alumni Set Drive Goal

The scholarship fund campaign recently launched by the Attucks High School Alumni association has set its fund goal at $500.

The association president, William A. Taylor, revealed that plans are under way to offer one 1957 Attucks graduate, to be selected by the association's award committee, a $200 scholarship each semester for one year. An additional $50 will be placed in a rotating fund, also to be used for scholarships.

The association has further planned to institute a scholastic loan fund to assist college upperclassmen.

Bases for the selection of the scholarship recipients are need, performance in the four years of high school and faculty recommendation.

An appeal is being made to Indianapolis Attucks alumni and alumni in other cities to make contributions to the fund by June 3. Checks should be made payable to the Crispus Attucks Alumni Association, Crispus Attucks high school, and sent in care of Miss Ollie Terry, executive secretary.

It is also announced that the alumni yearbooks will be distributed at the association's first fall meeting in the latter part of September.

The yearbooks will contain excerpts from the constitution, a brief association history, the program for the ensuing year and other pertinent materials.

Set Opening Of Swimming Pools

The city's six public swimming pools and its 52 supervised playgrounds will open June 15. A. J. Thatcher, director of the Indianapolis Department of Public Parks announced last week.

Thatcher said the Park Department will conduct a school for persons interested in becoming lifeguards at city pools June 3-7 in the Butler university pool in the west end of the Butler Fieldhouse daily from 1:00 to 5:00.

A training school for all park personnel will be conducted by Wallace C. Baker, recreation superintendent, at Brookside Park Community Center, June 12 and 13 from 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. All city community centers will close June 11.

The Park Department again will conduct its annual "learn to swim" clinics, starting June 18, from 9:00 to 12:15. The six city pools are in Broad Ripple, Ellensberger, Wilard, Rhodius, Douglas and Garfield parks.

Thatcher said most of the staff members at the pools and playgrounds will again be public school teachers.

— "Come Down to Our House" —

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

The Cavaliers club of Anderson provided me with an enjoyable Saturday night last week, the occasion being that group's second annual formal dance, which I attended as guest of Mrs. Hazel Minnefield, daughter of Mrs. Fred Augusta of this city. The affair was held in the Urban League Center, which was painstakingly decorated for evening.

The club, understand, is considered toe top social club in Anderson, and I can understand why. A group of a dozen men who go to a tremendous amount of trouble to make really beautiful decorations for one evening deserve to be tops.

A Summery "roof" was provided by a lattice-work of wire over the entire dancing area, and this lattice-work was further graced by black and white streamers running the entire length of the hall, each little section carefully hung to be scalloped evenly all over. I shudder to think of the amount of work going into this arrangement, although I suppose the fellows consider it worth it, since the effect was unusually handsome.

Not having had a chance to talk with any of the fellows, I cannot tell all about the improvised revolving light, but I understand they had made the arrangement themselves. Somehow a motor revolved a disk-like screen of red and yellow beneath the tenth light, thus giving the dance floor an interesting play of light and shadow throughout the evening.

Another interesting decorative touch, but one not "run into the ground," was a festive arrangement of huge tinsel balls near this central light, while beyond these were enormous black and white crepe paper balls.

Greeting the guests as they arrived was a five-part screen of white metal hung with crepe paper streamers in the club colors and centered with the Cavalier's "shield." You may get an idea of it by seeing the picture on page nine.

While guests took time out from dancing to the music of the local Buddy Bryant orchestra, they could regale themselves with an unusually wide assortment of pretty and delicious canapés. I understand the men made these, too—but I would advise them to stop this sort of thing: as nicely prepared as they were the men will soon find themselves saddled with the job of family cook if their wives happen to discover just who did what!

The canapés, literally of every conceivable variety, shape and color, were very generously supplied, so there was no nonsense about taking merely two or three! A tasty punch was also provided, in addition to the variety of drinks at the individual tables.

Guests were present from various points in the state, and I saw several from Indianapolis. I won't name them, though—they may have sneaked away from town!

In addition to the picture of the men, a group of women were photographed. The photographer was late in getting them to our office, though. They may run next week.

Going there, as enjoyable as it was, did prevent my attending the formal dance of the Delta Sigma Thetas, which I understand was enjoyable throughout.

The Deltas, however, have always been unusually understanding about the problems facing a social editor, so I'm sure they haven't cast me into the trash pile for missing the dance, especially since the photographer, Elzy McReynolds, was busily there. I wish that all groups were as understanding as these women!

Speaking of Greek-letter or organizations, Alpha chapter of Iota Phi Lambda sorority celebrated its 21st anniversary Sunday, with the anniversary meeting being held at the home of the chapter's founder, Mrs. Corean Hawkins.

Plans were completed for the coming rush party to be given at the home of Mrs. Audrey Howard, and tentative plans were made for the 1957 "Debutante Ball." Mrs. Elizabeth Babb is president of the local chapter.

And still more with the Greeks—Mesdames Joseph Butler, Emory James and Willie M. Johnson motored to Louisville over the weekend to attend the Great Lakes Regional convention of Zeta Phi Beta sorority.

Mrs. Butler is chairman of the regional executive board. Mrs. Johnson is president of the local chapter, and Mrs. Jones is first Vice-president.

Women's Federated Clubs

By RACHEL OVERBY

The City Federation of Colored Women's Clubs honored members 70 years old or over at last Tuesday's meeting. From the American Beauty club were Mesdames Cora Rawls, Leota Snorden, Emma Harding, Ethel Reid, Maggie Baker and Ella Turner, while those of the Altruistic club so honored were Mesdames Cordelia Garnett, Laura Bragg, Mattie Smith, Alicia Hughes and Margaret Thomas.

Others included Mesdames Lula Hodge and Lena Harris, Thursday Coteries; Lula Bean, the Lula Bean club; Sarah Stokes and Georgia Horton, Four Leaf Clover club; Martha Tash and Mary Keys, Woman's Council, and Essie Ray and Drucilla White, Parliamentary Study club.

The Federated Clubs of East Chicago will entertain the Indiana State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs when the state convention is held there July 6-9.

Mrs. Dorothea Breeding, chairman of the bus committee, is asking for early reservations from the delegates.

The Coterie Coettes will meet Monday night at 7:30 with Miss Delores Alvies, 1554 North Arsenal avenue. Plans will be concluded for the "Waistline Party," the annual June Tea and style show scheduled for June 16.

The Silver Thread club will meet Monday with Mrs. Mary Taylor, 2132 Columbia avenue. Plans will be made for the annual dinner.

The Parliamentary Study club will meet Tuesday at the House hold of Ruth Center.

Mrs. Blanche Cross, public school teacher and first vice-president of the Indiana State Federation of Colored Women's Clubs, was chaparrone to a group of junior high school and high school girls who attended the National Red Cross convention at Washington, D. C., this week.

They were to be guests at the National Association Home of Federated Club Women and attend a mass meeting, tour Howard University, the White House and governmental buildings and visit state congressmen.

RECITALIST: Richard C. Henderson, social editor and music critic of The Recorder, will play in a piano recital Sunday night, June 16, in Second Christian Church. Organist-choirmaster at St. Philip's Episcopal Church, he will do a program of compositions by Bach, Mendelssohn, Chopin and Litz. Sponsor's tickets at $2 and patron tickets at $1 are available at The Recorder.

Rose Theme to Dominate "Y" Group Breakfast Card Party

June is the month of roses, and the special projects committee of the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA's committee on administration has kept that in mind in planning a "Rose Breakfast Card Party" set for Saturday morning, June 15, at 10, when breakfast will be served, followed by bridge, whist and canasta. Door prizes and score prizes will be awarded, and "on time" bonuses will be given to those arriving early.

Invited to participate as hostesses have been members of the Delphinium, Green Thumb, Garden Gate and Happy Gardeners garden clubs. Awards will be given for the most attractive flower arrangements.

Miss Ula Carpenter is chairman of the special projects committee, and Mrs. Fred Augusta is co-chairman.

Other members of the committee are Mesdames David Reynolds, F. B. Bansom, Alonzo Daniels, Isaac Bacon, Travis Wilhite, Howard Bowles, L. G. Hill, DeWitt Jones, Rose H. Thompson and Helen Wolford and the Misses Beatrice Bettis and Jimi Davis.

Bridge, whist and canasta clubs are invited to participate in a group or as individuals. Additional information may be obtained by calling ME. 4-1436.

"June is also the month of gaiety," reminds the Brightwood and Central Circles of the "Y" in inviting the public to their "Pre-Summer Soiree and Exhibition" at the branch Sunday afternoon, June 2, at 4:30. Mrs. O'Donnell Baugh of the L. S. Ayres and Company china department will speak on correct table settings and give demonstrations. Miss Bettye Hutchinson, student at the Jordan College of Music, will be guest pianist, and Mrs. James Fowler will be guest soloist.

ENJOYING DELTAS' DANCE: Indianapolis fortunate enough to be regularly on the list of those invited to the formal dances of Chi chapter of Delta Sigma Theta sorority know what fun they can always expect. Last Saturday night's dance, held at the Indiana University Medical Center Student Union Building, was no exception, as these pictures indicate. At the top are Clifford Palmer, Miss Winifreda Nelson, H. Tyson and Miss Johnnie Walton. Pictured seated in the center are Mesdames Theodore H. Randall and M. A. Dickerson, while standing are Mesdames Pat R. Powell, J. Robert Lawson and Merritt Pace, and at the bottom are Miss Joan Bailey, Kenneth Bassett, Richard Bradley and Miss Ruth Keno. (Recorder photography by Elzy McReynolds.)

Mrs. Gertrude Cumberlander is chairman of the circles, and other members of the committee are Mesdames Aletha Lawrence, co-chairman of the circles and chairman of the Central Circle; Ida Hardin, chairman of the Brightwood Circle, and Flora Clark, representative of the Brightwood Circle.

Flower Club Guests Hear About Roses

"Roses Are for People," theme of the "guest day" meeting of the Garden Gate Flower club, was carried out in sharing ideas with friends at the recreation room of the Park Board Building, 101 East 27th street, last Sunday.

Included on the attractively arranged program were a brief history of the club and its activities by Mrs. Edward Corlwe and a demonstration of modern and conventional flower arrangements for the home by Mrs. Cecil Powell of the Atkins Flower Shop.

Highlighting the program was a travelogue given by Ted Tuschinsky of the Hillside Nurseries and Gardens, who showed color slides of rose gardens in Germany, the Western states and Indiana.

The theme was further carried out in the centerpiece, a frozen punch bowl in which roses were embedded. Favors of rosebuds were given to the guests, while each hostess wore a nosegay of roses.

Members of the club, in addition to Mrs. Corlwe, are Mesdames George Woodson, president; Alfred Gray, 906 Roache street; Dr. C. Henry Bell, pastor of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her grandfather, London Whitney. She wore a pink lace dress and carried pink roses and white carnations.

Mrs. Mary Whitney was matron-of-honor, and Willie Fisher was best man.

The bride's sister, Miss Cathrine Crawford, was hostess for the reception which followed. A special guest was Mrs. Elwood Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter, both members of Mt. Paran Baptist Church, are at home to friends at 1050 Fayette street.

Mrs. Mosezella Davis was general chairman of the affair, with Mrs. Hortense Moore as co-chairman. Mrs. Vivian Benedict, program chairman, was master of ceremonies, and Mrs. Pauline Eans was chairman of refreshments. Serving as hostesses were members of the sorority-sponsored Rhoer club.

Chatting with the FAC

By ELSA JACKSON

The FAC Young Adults in their meeting Tuesday night completed plans for their first affair, a "Get-Acquainted Party" to be held in the club home next Tuesday night at 8 and to which all young adults are invited. Miss LaVerne Esters, president, says there will be plenty of games, dancing and refreshments.

FAC President Starling W. James, one of the few persons from Indiana to attend the Prayer Pilgrimage in Washington, D. C., last Friday, returned home very enthusiastic. The leaders of the pilgrimage whom he met at the Lincoln Memorial impressed him deeply.

The regular membership can hardly wait until the second Monday in June for his detailed report.

Committee representation was most heartening last Monday night. The third Monday night has been set aside for all FAC committees to meet in the club home. The committee with the largest attendance receives free refreshments.

Mrs. Lillian Goens and her civic and legislative committee were the lucky group, with Mrs. Ethel Ryan and the activities committee running a close second.

The civic and legislative group voted to write to the highway commission concerning the absence of Negroes in jobs. Mr. James, D. W. D. Hector and Rev. B. T. Almon will draw up the letter and ask for an interview.

The annual pitch-in party and a fall fashion review were planned by the activities committee. Mrs. Roberta Wiggins, co-chairman, will head the review.

The annual trip to the Farm College will be held next week.

Mrs. Ora Lee Phillips has graciously agreed to write the column while I am vacationing in California next month. I will be leaving on May 31. Mrs. Phillips will write for three weeks. She may be called at AT. 3-7531.

AT IAC BANQUET: Pupils and friends of Attucks high school put on their best bibs and tuckers last Saturday night for the annual banquet sponsored by the Industrial Arts club of the school. Taking time out from the festivities to pose for The Recorder photographer, William Raspberry, were the Misses Bonnie Westbrooks, queen of the Military Ball, and Sandra Barnes, IAC queen, along with Kenneth Barnett, IAC king; James Williams, club president, and Robert Williams, instructor and club sponsor.

Wins Speech Contest

Miss Lenora Ricketts, 2313 Paris, a January 1957 graduate of Crispus Attucks high school, won first prize in the local Masonic oratorical contest held May 20 at Mt. Paran Baptist Church. She spoke on the subject "Civil Rights are Everybody's Business."

Miss Ricketts plans to enter the Methodist Hospital School of Nursing next fall.

As a result of her success in the local contest, she will represent Central district in the state finals to be held Aug. 14 at Richmond during the meeting of the Prince Hall Grand Lodge of Indiana. F&AM

Other participants in the local competition were Misses Janice Williams, Sylvia Roberts, Marguerite Smith and Jeanette Walker.

I RECEIVED last week from the National Baptist Publishing Board one copy each of the new BYPU Quarterly, the Intermediate BYPU Quarterly for ages 13-16 and the Children's Hour for ages three to eight.

These quarterlies, which in my opinion are tops, may be ordered from the National Baptist Publishing Board, 523 Second Avenue N., Nashville, Tenn.

THERE IS a great need for clothing in the migrant camps in Florida, according to my sister, Miss Naomi Thomas, field consultant for the Planned Parenthood Federation of America with offices in New York City. She recently toured Florida where she visited one of the camps. She feels that the churches can do a great deal in helping to clothe these people, all of whom are Negroes.

Miss Thomas is the only member of her race to tour the nation in the interest of better housing and matters affecting the family. She will visit Europe this summer.

a deaf mute in Palestine and could not speak or hear until he was 34 years of age.

His first words uttered were, "God is Able."

He insists he doesn't know how he was cured and never received medical treatment. He is married and all five of his children are deaf mutes.

REARED in Cuba, he lived there 52 years before coming to the United States. He never received any formal education.

Uncle Dummy will make his prophesy for 1958 to all newspapers and radio stations during the month of August, 1957.

He is interested in the atomic explosions set off recently and will predict their effects upon children and future generations, he said.

He is expected to remain in Indianapolis several days.

The name by which he prefers to be popularly known might inspire humor of a sort, but there has been no such emotional quality in his prophesies so far.

ment, passed last year at Minneapolis, to end segregation in the Methodist Church.

Another highlight of the Conference was the composite report for the five district superintendents of all five districts: Chicago, Columbus, Cincinnati, Indiana and Louisville, districts of the Conference.

These were compiled and read by Dr. David M. Jordan, district superintendent of the Indiana District.

Dr. Jordan, the Negro representative on the Technical Consultants' Committee of the Department of Research and Surveys of the National Board of Missions of the Methodist Church interpreted the report with maps, charts and graphs.

HE REVEALED and explored the rapid influx of Negro people into the seven states of the Lexington Conference—Illinois, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Indiana and Kentucky.

He pointed out that in these states, today are two and one-half million Negro people, or one-seventh of the total Negro population of the country.

Again the shift of the Negro population has been so rapid in recent years that it is now distributed as follows: one-third in the urban South; one-third in the rural South and one-third in the North, East and West.

FURTHER because of this major population shift the Conference is compelled to make radical changes in its organization and building of new churches, its relocation of old ones, its changes in district boundaries and its increase in pastors and lay workers.

It was further stated that the Lexington Conference, in these seven states, faces a greater challenge on inter-racial co-operation and integration than in any other section of the country.

To meet this challenge the Conference plans: 1. To organize more Negro churches in all-Negro communities; 2. To work with white Methodist churches for integrated memberships in mixed communities; and 3. To work with white Methodists in winning and welcoming Negro members in cities where there are no Negro Methodist Churches.

The 1958 annual session of the Lexington Conference will be held at R. E. Jones Temple, Louisville, Ky.

Women Injured As Car Crashes Porch

The occupants of the house at 1227 N. West got quite a scare when the early evening quiet was rudely blasted by a crash of something against the front porch of the house Monday.

Police who arrived shortly thereafter sent two women injured, to the hospital, when the car in which they were being driven by Vernon A. Rhodes, 40, 1168 Eugene, jumped the curb, lunged through a lawn and crashed into the porch.

Mrs. Ruby F. Burks, 40, 1905 N. Capitol, suffered a cut on the head and bruises and Mrs. Della Sutton, 431 W. 28th suffered a broken right ankle.

ing about the employment of Negro vendors at the Cincinnati (65 percent), Baltimore (90 percent) and Chicago White Sox baseball parks.

He mentioned the name of Theodore A. Berry, Cincinnati City Councilman and Vice-Mayor, as a "reference" on the question.

A prominent local Negro who is in a position to know also vouched for Sobel as well as the local Soprt-service organization.

Mrs. Virginia Taylor, in charge of Indianapolis operations of Sportservice, was said to be a "square shooter" in fair employment. It was pointed out that Negroes serve as vendors at Victory Field, baseball games of the Indianapolis Indians.

One Negro employee, Mrs. Arlene Nathan, has worked at Victory Field for 15 years and "practically runs the place," it was said.

NEVERTHELESS the fact remained that while Negroes are working in other capacities at the Speedway, none had been hired as vendors.

Some veteran 500-mile race fans said they could never remember a Negro vendor at the race. Another man said he could recall one.

The race itself is discriminatory, in that no Negro has ever driven a car or figured prominently in a crew.

Concern is felt by many regarding the ability of the Board of Fundamental Education to operate the project in line with its avowed intentions unless important concessions are made that would make management of Lockefield little different from that now existing and as offered to the city.

OPPOSITION to city ownership and operation could never project has been based mainly on the issues of non-payment of taxes, a reduction in income resulting from an increase in costs of operation at the entrance of the city into the field of public housing.

Democratic party for failing to speak out during its national meeting concerning the bombings, outrages, persecutions and present rights legislation which is being stalled in the Democratic-controlled congress.

Congressman William L. Dawson, Democrat of Illinois, is ill in the hospital and could not accept the invitation to take part in this massive demonstration.

NEITHER the White House nor the Senate participated in the program. Officials of the Pilgrimage said they did not invite the White House.

Two Senators were scheduled to speak, Senator Jacob Javits, Republican of New York, and Senator Paul Douglas, Democrat of Illinois, but neither showed up.

The meeting seemed more after an old-fashioned camp meeting than like a political rally. The majority of the speakers were ministers from the area which has suffered violence at the hands of hostile white citizens.

Those ministers told the story of their section and expressed determination to continue the fight for freedom to a bitter end.

THE MEETING was climaxed with a fiery speech delivered calmly but determinedly by the Rev. Martin Luther King of Montgomery, Ala. This great leader expressed the need for calm leadership. This is no time for cable-raising either among the whites or the colored, he emphasized.

The meeting was opened with remarks from Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president of Howard University. He referred to this meeting as "the most inspiring that I have ever heard in all the years of my public life."

Two inspiring vocal numbers were rendered by Miss Mahalia Jackson, noted gospel singer. In a private interview, Miss Jackson said she had carefully selected this first number because she felt that our race can say more than any other than "We have been 'bused' and 'bused' but the Lord will lead us on to victory." Her second number appropriately stated that "God's Going to Make a Way."

Other musical selections were furnished by a massive choir under the direction of Dean Warner, awson of the School of Music, Howard University, and by the famous interracial Fellowship choir of Philadelphia, featuring Arleen Brown.

At the beginning of the ceremony, a wreath was placed at the feet of Abraham Lincoln's statue by James and Theresa Gordon, the young children who braved the wrath of the mob at Clay, Ky., to attend the public schools there.

MRS. ROSA PARKS, whose arrest in Montgomery because she refused to render her bus seat to a white man, set off bus boycott in that city, was among the special guests.

Besides the many prominent political and religious leaders attending the pilgrimage were also some outstanding stars of stage and screen. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Belafonte; Sammy Davis, Jr.; Actress Ruby Gee; actor Sidney Poitier; and Mr. and Mrs. John Killens.

Each bowler received a trophy and is waiting for September, when the YMCA Bowling League will begin again. The league is a mixed handicap league with men and women, bowlers and beginners. First place in the league was won by Team Four, of which Omer Fishback is captain, composed of Velma Wills, Allene Morgan, Henzy

Green and Willa Collins. Evans Jones was captain of the second-place Team Three, members of which are Anthony Garrett, Arthur Wright, Kay Grimes and Mrs. Virginia Jones. THAT LAVISH LOOK...
 THAT LUXURY TASTE...
 IT'S PET, YOU BET!

You wouldn't think such high, luscious topping could be anything except whipped cream, would you? But it is—it's whipped Pet Evaporated Milk!

Y'see—there's golden country cream in every single drop of Pet Milk—more than twice as much as in ordinary milk.

That's why it looks tempting and rich as good fresh cream... and whips like a dream!

You'd guess in a minute that milk like this could do lots of other things ordinary milk can't do. And you'd be exactly right. Pet Milk blends in beautifully to make smo-o-oth rich sauces... makes favorite cream pies better than ever—even "creams" your coffee to party-time perfection.

So, if you enjoy luxury living, get Pet Milk... America's first evaporated milk.

WHIPPED LEMON TOPPING—It's easy to whip

1/2 cup PET Evaporated MILK
 4 teasp. sugar

1/2 teasp. grated lemon rind
 2 teasp. lemon juice

Chill milk in ice tray until almost frozen around edges. Put ice-cold milk into a cold 1-quart bowl with sugar. Whip with cold rotary beater by hand, or with electric beater at high speed, until fluffy. Add lemon rind and juice. Whip until stiff. (Serve as topping on puddings, plain cake, pies or other desserts.) Makes 1 cup.

THE ACCENT'S ON BEAUTY: The accent was on beauty for those attending the third annual clinic sponsored by the Indiana Hair Designing Institute here this week, and the keynote was set Sunday afternoon with a beautifully-arranged tea at the Phyllis Wheatley YWCA. Pictured at the unusually beautiful tea table are Mesdames Essie G. Ray, Adele Reed of Philadelphia, here as specialist during the clinic, Julia Grant, Margaret Smith and Flynn H. Moses; Mr. F. H. Moses, president of the institute; Mesdames Beulah Harding, chairman; Geneva Johnson, secretary; Elizabeth Williams, treasurer, and Helen Valentine, membership secretary, and Wilbert Johnson, chairman of publicity.

there that wasn't supposed to happen. He should have been dead, but he wasn't."

Woodson came out of the tunnel and it was an hour before a new casing was prepared and he could go back in.

HE DUG through to the boy a second time. He got his arms around the boy and pulled him out. "I saw his eyes open. They were beautiful blue eyes. I started to cry. I cried like a baby. Then I grabbed his arms and pulled him up," said the slender, wiry man whose clothes were clogged with muck and who was ready to collapse. His voice choked with emotion.

Negro Press Creed The Negro Press believes that the United States of America can best lead the world away from racial and national antagonism when it accords every man, regardless of race, color or creed, his human and legal rights. Hating no man, fearing no man, the Negro Press strives to help every man in the firm belief that all are hurt so long as any one is held back.

Civil Rights Pilgrimage Should Rouse Nation

Perfunctory attention was given to last week's "Prayer Pilgrimage for Freedom," held at the Lincoln Memorial in Washington, D. C., on the third anniversary of the Supreme Court's school desegregation ruling; but that pilgrimage may well have been the fetal stirring of a new spirit in the nation's Negroes, the birth of which is more imminent than we believe. The pilgrimage was planned essentially to prick the nation's conscience on the matter of civil rights. Its aim should have been realized, and President Eisenhower, the national Congress and government at the state and city levels should be moved to positive action by the impressive picture of 30,000 Negroes singing, praying and preaching for their constitutional rights.

It would be wrong, we think, to view the program through overly-rose-colored glasses. The very unweelcome and uninited Communist element was on hand, although not on the platform nor doing any demonstrating. The very nature of the pilgrimage stressing a spirit of cooperation rather than domination by either the NAACP or ministers as a group, made unlikely any unity on a line of action to be followed in realizing the aim of awaking the nation to the need for civil rights legislation in this Congress and in protesting against violence to Negroes in the South. California's Rev. Hamilton T. Boswell, religious editor of the Associated Negro Press, has pointed out that "at the end of the meeting there was a realization that we might have presented some plan to harness the tremendous inspiration coming out of it."

On the other hand, the importance of the pilgrimage should not be underestimated. When it is realized that the 30,000 making up the crowd contained few people from Washington, and that not too many Negroes have either the jobs or money to allow them to trek to Washington at a moment's notice, the falling short of the 50,000 goal is insignificant. More significant is the corporate nature of the sponsorship, which saw people from all walks of life getting together for the first time in the Negro's history. The "new spirit" is still not fully born, we repeat, but its birth day is obviously almost here.

What's Color When Boy's Life Is Saved?

God has so made up man that in those rare moments when he experiences primitive or primary emotions or is face-to-face with something bigger than himself, he unconsciously lays aside all the impedimenta of "civilization"—his pettinesses, prejudices, selfish pride, everything which is the result of a puny individual pitting himself against the stream of humanity instead of with it. Such a moment occurred at Manorville, N.Y., last week when color was forgotten in the more important matter of saving the life of seven-year-old Benny Hooper.

Who, in the triumphant moment when the 39-year-old construction worker, Sam Woodson, shouted up from a 25-foot shaft, "He's alive," had even an unconscious thought that Woodson was a black man or that Benny was a white boy? Thoughts of color differences may have given the throngs gathered around the well, into which the boy had fallen while playing, a sense of realization of the fundamental brotherhood of all men when they saw this Negro man working alongside his white co-workers for twelve hours in an almost hopeless attempt to save the child; but probably emotion kept everybody from seeing the blackness of the Negro or the whiteness of the child as they emerged from the earth.

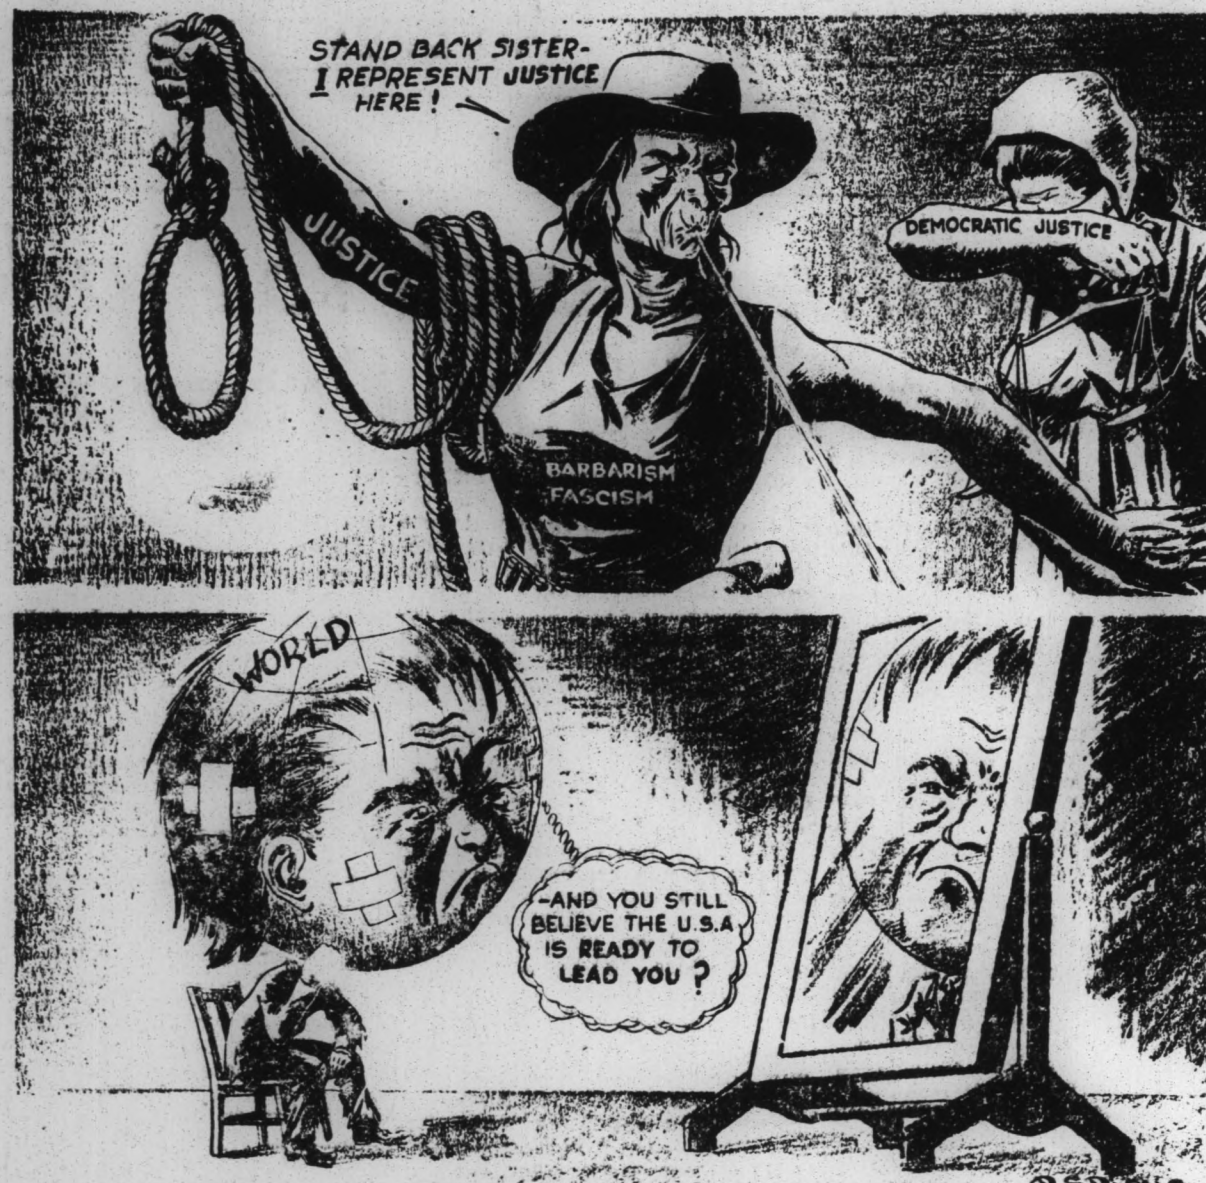

It seems a pity that we men cannot always be so completely together; but, as we said at first, God has so made up man... Aside from those moments when only real essentials count, man is so busy selling his free will to the world, the flesh and the devil that his better self seldom has a chance to see the light of day. Most of the people on the scene last Friday have returned to their homes with their same old prejudices and blindnesses. But just for a few moments they were real brothers with one Father, and they were close to Him. And for those few moments we must join the rest of our clear-thinking brothers and thank our Father.

Segregation Harm Is Two-Way Matter

Segregation is harmful to every member of the community which practices it. This should be clear to anybody who really thinks about it, and individual psychologists have pointed it out before. The Supreme Court half-way realized it in making its school desegregation ruling three years ago. But removing any doubt should be the opinion of the Group for Advancement of Psychiatry after two years of study of the pooled observation and findings of more than 235 psychiatrists and social scientists representing every section of the country.

There's no need to comment upon the harm to the segregated against; every member of a minority group in this country can tell about it, and more effectively than we can write about it. The segregators, however, gain a "feeling of superior worth" which stems unrealistically "merely from the existence of the downgraded group." Every member of the community is harmed by the high disease and death rates, crime and delinquency, poor housing, substandard living conditions and the disrupted or poorly organized family life resulting from segregation.

Harm or no harm, however, segregation is with us and will remain until enlightenment, an aroused sense of morality and positive thinking replace ignorance, racism and negative thinking. Like any other bad habit, it is most successfully fought by substitution of good ones. The only way to remove segregation is for the masters of self—the people who can stop over-eating, smoking or drinking when they learn the harm of the habits—to straighten themselves out, then take the lead in helping their lesser-willed neighbors.

A Diamond For A Dime Siggins Proved Right Again

LONDON, ENGLAND (ANI)—Readers will remember an article under the same heading written some two years ago. That was when Sir Percy Sillitoe, ex-head of M. I. 5, British top secret service organization, went out to stop Africa on behalf of the Diamond Corporation.

I ridiculed the idea that the smuggling of diamonds in Africa on behalf of the could be stopped and said the estimate they gave of the total of diamonds smuggled was much too low.

Well, here is another confirmation of what I then wrote. There have been others as well, notably by Frederick F. H. City Editor of the Daily Express last year.

My complaint was that the African producers were not getting enough for their stones. The remedy was—and still is—to pay the producers a fair price.

"HELP THE PRODUCERS to produce more so they can consume more," is what I have been preaching for years in regard to Africa particularly and as a general rule everywhere.

Sir Ernest Oppenheimer's vast monopoly Diamond Corporation may be useful to keep the prices of stones up in the world markets but it does not help the producers of diamonds to get enough for their exhaustible natural resources.

I know diamonds and other natural resources stay in circulation and can be used over and over again. But once they leave Africa, they are burdened with Europeans' wage, taxation and other heavy loads and add to the wealth of aliens instead of adding to Africans' wealth.

Apart from the ethics of that process it is lunatic from a business point of view. The most advanced industrial countries need markets for goods and services.

If Africans, Asians, Indonesians, West Indians and other people with low annual income could be helped to earn ten times their present income—say an average now of $50.00 a year raised to $500 dollars a year, there would be an immense new market for African, British and European goods and service.

MR. NIXON, Vice-president of U. S. A. said that it is important to the campaign to offset the advance of Communism.

I have seen Africa being offered for Communism for 57 years by British and other exploiters and I can assure Mr. Nixon that all the capital, that U. S. A. can afford to invest in Africa and all the propaganda she can do will have as much effect in stopping Communism as all U. S. efforts did to stop prohibition.

All the money and efforts U. S. A. invests in trying to convert Africans to the American way of life will "Cover Africa with graft and slime but not stop communism worth a dime."

Just like prohibition.

What is needed is a New Deal for Africa; this can be only by CREATING VALUES AMONG THE PRODUCERS AND GETTING RID OF THE BIG AMERICAN, BRITISH, BELGIAN, FRENCH, PORTUGUESE, SOUTH AFRICAN, INDIAN, PAKISTANI AND SYRIAN EXPLOITERS.

I HAVE OFFERED a plan for going just that, and up to date, it is the best plan published.

It is a United States of Africa between the Tropics.

This would give Africans control of their own natural resource, and eliminate racketeers and alien exploiters and monopolists.

"Let George Do It" Attitude Wet-Blankets Rights Battle

Indianapolis Negroes who were busy working for enactment of civil rights legislation during the last Congress were somewhat miffed at Congressman Brownson, who made the categorical statement during the 1956 election campaign that Indianapolis Negroes are not interested in civil rights.

The sad truth is that they were only "somewhat" miffed because they realized that only a corporation's guard of them could be counted upon to do the primary and secondary fighting. They remembered how a handful of them fought to open the downtown restaurants, hotels and theaters to Negroes back in the Forties and how those who refuse to support them by direct action or financial aid were among the first to cash in on the benefits once the battle was won.

These champions of first class citizenship while damming the 1957 General Assembly for refusing to pass a stronger civil rights bill, realize that if greater mass support had been corralled for the bill, the politicians would not have dared to ignore it.

They also watched while their money with grocery and Negroes voluntarily spent chain and mercantile establishments which have anti-Negro hiring policies and they have witnessed the apathy in the face of police brutality, discrimination in employment at City Hall, the Court House and the State House.

IT HAS BEEN amazing to them how Negroes have not protested the gerrymandering of the city's inefficient public transportation system so that practically all the black ghettos of the city are connected and that this has been used by school officials as an excuse for gerrymandering high school districts, putting Negro pupils on Arsenal Avenue, Martindale Avenue and other East-side streets in an optional Attucks district.

Relative calm in the face of apparently anti-Negro move on the part of Shortridge High School seems to bear out the statement of Congressman Brownson.

Among those who are shaking their heads over the situation are P. Holston Zeigler, president of the local NAACP chapter and F. E. De Frantz, Sr., the director of the branch's drive for a respectable membership.

They are the more difficult to get a two dollar membership from some Negroes than it is to get a down payment on a 1957 Delux automobile or a fifteen thousand dollar home.

These are hard facts to face but Messrs. Zeigler and De Frantz are not giving up. They believe that thousands of Indianapolis Negroes are actually interested in civil rights but simply do not realize that any contribution which they might make is important.

THEY ARE cognizant also of the fact that many persons state that they would join the NAACP if some one would only come around to get their two dollars.

But the fact is that there are not enough voluntary workers to do the job and the ninety cents which the local branch retains out of each membership is inadequate to employ paid workers.

For that reason, the local NAACP has enlisted the aid of most of the pastors of churches with Negro membership and the friendly labor unions to assist it in contacting persons who would otherwise be missed.

In addition the branch has an office where one can call and have someone pick up his membership.

Whereas Mr. Zeigler and Mr. De Frantz are optimistic about the situation there are those who are open in their belief that, while it may not be true that Negroes are not interested in civil rights, many of them are nonetheless willing and anxious for someone else to do the job for them.

It is the opinion of this writer that Congressman Brownson charged is wrong, the "let George do it" attitude of local Negroes accounts for the apparent apathy on their parts.

THE PRESENT DRIVE of the NAACP for 10,000 members can well be the measuring stick by which we can judge these theories.

HAVE YOU JOINED YET? If not, call ME, 5-4690, anytime of day or night and tell the NAACP when someone can pick up your membership.

that Kah'il Gioran said, "AN EXAGGERATION IS A TRUTH that has lost its TEMPER." Therefore we must not forget that mere mortals lose their "temper" while considering the "exaggerations" of Galileo, or along the way Guglielmo Marconi, Alexander Graham Bell, Thomas Alva Edison or other mortals over all the incomprehensible reaches of time.

However, if I dare to drop up at your home, or at any place or time—the best liar is one who makes the smallest amount of lying go the longest way. We are unprepared in spirit and fact to condemn or condone Mr. Menger, but seemingly he traveled from New Jersey to the planet Venus in about 10 minutes. And you might conclude all of this "much ado about nothing."

Chas. B. Brownson, U.S. Congressman from our town, recently prepared a bill to be introduced in the U. S. House whereby the local public housing project, Lockfield Gardens would be turned over to the Board for Fundamental Education. Under present law only municipalities can take over federal housing projects.

Five or more Indiana towns and cities now operate public housing project. But Lockfield Gardens has been the center of a controversy on public ownership for many moons now. Various church, civic and labor organizations have appealed to, or urged the city administration to acquire and operate this housing project.

But it is widely charged that the influence of real estate, business and industrial circles has been brought to bear to prevent this. Under private ownership many people venture that Lockfield tenants will be confronted by a disturbing big boost in rental rates in the afterwhile.

Cleo W. Blackburn, director of Flanner House for local social service institution, is secretary of the Board for Fundamental Education. The organization was set up under a charter from the U. S. Congress in 1954. It is engaged in the operation of other social service institutions in Texas and Minnesota.

Howard Menger, age 35, High Bridge, N. J., on a recent visit to our town told of meeting with "PEOPLE" from "outer space" over the last 25 years. He has met with them in his own backyard, and such places as California, Hawaii and Okinawa.

According to reports he gave a detailed talk of a trip to the planet Venus, in a space-ship which landed on the planet Earth, near his home last year. Seemingly within 10 minutes after he left New Jersey he was looking down on the planet Venus. He reported that "PEOPLE" from outer space are in our midst and on the streets of many cities of our country.

Reflections of human interest or interest in the root cause of corruption in every significant phase of human interest or endeavor. Yet "goodness and mercy" hardly begin to touch the heart of the condition as it is enhanced by the complexities of so-called modern life.

Pursuing success, men and women around us reflect the sins of disposition and selfishness which indicate that our democratic and Christian civilization is dying in the hearts or minds of the very people who give it the most vociferous lip service.

The fundamental force of human nature—the biological urge (sex)—has been exploited in alarming manners by entities tangent to economic life, particularly sundry media for communicating ideas. They have, over a period of about three decades, invoked irreparable havoc in a manner in the mind of the passing throng.

Thus millions of human beings who are motivated generally by the seeming opinions and actions of the crowd, tend to excuse, rationalize and explain away evolutions of social behavior which may be undemanding the last vestiges of spiritual or ideal stamina ennobled by the Founding Fathers of our Republic.

Eventually these people sustain a do-nothing, soulless attitude toward their surroundings, and human beings at the bottom of the socio-economic heap including some places the best promises of the world of tomorrow. These people (the former) are concerned, it appears, about the pursuit of manners of life which detracts from the moral or spiritual evolution of the nation.

Truly, it appears to be the American way to "pretend to be" such as appears to be complacent in do-nothing attitudes of indifference to the true manner of evolution of a better humanity. The same situation, the Roman Empire the same situation obtained in Greece or the Roman Empire and all great nations of remote antiquity.

Is there any law governing the conduct of nations that would give support to this country's parking its 8th and 17th Fleets in foreign waters? It would be a sorry excuse for Uncle Sam to say that he was governed in such actions by the solicitations of nations adjacent to those parking areas.

Here's Why Crowe, Other Naptown Coaches Are Hot

SOUTH BEND — Attacks Basketball Coach Ray Crowe would have "bettered himself" by $835 a year if he had succeeded in getting the Lebanon job for which he recently applied.

That is the amount by which the small town to the northwest pays its major sports coaches above what Indianapolis mentors receive, according to a survey.

In other words, Crowe and other Naptown basketball and football coaches receive $500 above their regular teaching salaries. But Lebanon coaches make $1,335 above their school-room pay.

The figures were revealed in a survey by Forest Wood director of health and education in the South Bend schools. The survey was undertaken in connection with football and basketball vacancies at South Bend Riley high school.

The South Bend coaches receive $800 annually. This is said to be an average figure when compared with other large schools in the state.

When compared with Indianapolis, however, it causes Crowe, Tech's Charley Maas and their colleagues to turn a slightly deeper shade of green.

DURING THE LEBANON furor, Crowe said the Naptown coaches had gone to the School Board twice for a raise, but returned each time with empty hands.

Thus when Attacks played South Bend Central in the final game this spring, it was a case of a $500 coach—in terms of salary received—taking on an $800 coach. Small wonder that the Tiger Miracle Man decided he could commute to Lebanon!

It was even worse, according to the figures, when far-famed Attucks disposed of little Elwood in the Regional. That was a "500 coach" defeating an $850 coach. And the Elwood mentor, Carl McNulty, is a mere beginner at that.

THE HIGHEST-PAID basketball coach in Hoosierland is beyond his teaching stipend.

Among other amounts revealed were:

Jeffersonville—$1,800.
Logansport—$1,500.
Lafayette—$1,400.
Frankfort—$1,100.
Peru—$1,000.
Elkhart—$1,000.
Terre Haute and Crawfordsville—$900.

Bedford—$850.
Michigan City and LaPorte—$800, plus extra pay for coaching during vacation periods.

Sometimes the ante will be upped, it is said, in order to get a particular coach.

At the other end of the scale among major cities is Ft. Wayne which pays only $400 extra.

Gary follows a system once used in Indianapolis, where the mentors are rewarded on an hourly basis.

Crowe told The Recorder he was not among the 30 applicants for the vacancies at Riley. Attacks has toyed with Riley when they met on the hardwood.

ANOTHER OPENING that seems to be in the cards is at Muncie Central, where Jay McCreary is reported to have taken a job as head coach at Louisiana State.

While the report has not been confirmed at this writing, Louisiana sources say McCreary definitely has taken a job as head coach at Louisiana State.

At the time of the Lebanon deal, it was suggested by The Recorder that Crowe might move to one of the state's larger basketball powerhouses. That certainly would include Muncie Central—or it used to until Attacks came along, anyway.

The Tiger coach said last week he had not applied for the Bearcat position.

Patterson to Defend Heavy Title in July

NEW YORK (ANP)—Heavyweight boxing champion Floyd Patterson will defend his title for the first time in July, it was announced last week.

Cus D'Amato, Patterson's manager, made the announcement at a luncheon and news conference, during which he said that he and the international Boxing Club have come to a parting of the ways.

D'Amato said the fight will be staged, probably in a New York ball park, by Emil Lence, whom he described as his "New York area promoter."

The white-thatched manager gave a running account of his break with the IBC. He and Jim Norris, president of the powerful IBC, have been reported at odds for some time.

No opponent was named for the fight, but speculation centered on Eddie Machen, the No. 2 contender, and Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson, the ranking challenger. Machen holds the edge because of Jackson's previous loss to Patterson.

Hank Aaron, Robinson Vie For Bat Lead

By CHARLES J. LIVINGSTON For ANP

As major league baseball whipped into shape last week, six tar batsmen were in the thick of fight for batting honors in their respective leagues.

In the senior loop, Milwaukee's Hank Aaron and Cincinnati's Frank Robinson were battling for top honors, with Aaron nosing out Robinson as of Wednesday.

The top man in the National circuit, Aaron was sporting a hefty .366, while the amazing Robinson was close on his heels with .349.

Aaron is the choice of most experts to win the league's batting title, but supporters of the sophomore Robinson say he is good enough to upset Aaron, Musial and other challengers. Only 21 years old, Robinson was "Rookie of the Year" last season.

Aaron has been a natural ever since he invaded the Milwaukee ballclub.

WITH AARON AND Robinson in the thick of the fight was George Crowe, brother of Attacks basketball coach Ray Crowe.

Cincinnati's fill-in for the injured Ted Kluszewski, George is bidding fair to take over the first base chores from Ted. He was batting .344 and, along with Hank and Frank, was a member of the coveted baseball Big Ten club.

Also among the Big Ten stars was Harry Simpson, formerly of the Indianapolis Indians. The lanky Kansas City Athletics star was batting .344.

BELL BATTLES DAVIS IN BIG 10 MEET

EVANSTON, ILL. (ANP)—Greg Bell, Olympic gold medalist from Terre Haute, Ind., and Indiana University, will battle Glen Davis, another Olympian, for broad jump honors during the Big 10 track and field meet here Friday and Saturday, May 24-25.

Another competitor will be Charles "Deacon" Jones, Iowa University, who was a finalist in the 3,000-meter steeplechase at the Melbourne games.

Mays Steals 4

CINCINNATI—Willie Mays ran wild here Saturday, matching his one-game record as he stole four bases. He twice stole 2nd and 3rd in succession as the New York Giants downed the Reds, 6-3.

In addition Mays hit a 2-run homer and made a brilliant catch against the center field wall.

Harmon Faded by Cards to Phils

PITTSBURGH (ANP)—The Philadelphia Phillies last week announced the acquisition of Charlie Harmon of Washington, Ind., from the St. Louis Cardinals in exchange for Glen Gorbous.

It was a straight player-for-player deal, with no cash involved. Both are outfielders, though Harmon played third base when he was with Cincinnati.

The former high school basketball star made an unimpressive showing with the Cardinals and Cincinnati last season.

However, at Omaha, where the Cards sent him early in the season, he batted a hefty .360 in 58 games, drove in 49 runs and hit 10 home runs.

PHILADELPHIA (ANP)—This city will have the distinction of sending the first Negro official to the summer professional basketball league in Puerto Rico when the season opens there June 1.

The official, Gaines Brown, has been accepted on the recommendation of Len Toff, supervising official of the league and president of the Philadelphia Board of Approved Basketball Officials. Toff recommended Brown as "highly capable."

Brown, age 35, has been responsible for lowering a number of barriers in the Philadelphia area. He was the first Negro to officiate at a Public High School basketball championship, and the first to umpire a Public High baseball playoff.

Brown received his training over five years ago as a member of the Tri-State Officials, a group composed of leading Eastern Seaboard officials—most of them ex-college athletes. A number of CIAA officials belong to the association.

He has been given many difficult assignments in college, semi-pro and pro sports. He has also had experience in football.

The Puerto Rican league is composed of players famous throughout the U.S. and coaches of equal note, such as Ken Loeffler, former LaSalle College mentor.

Parker House Keglers 12th at Cleveland

CLEVELAND — The Parker House Sausage team of Indianapolis finished 12th in the annual tournament of the National Bowling Association here last week.

More than 2,000 men and women keglers from every section of the nation took part in the 3-day 16th annual classic.

Spotlight on Leroy at State Cinder Finals

Come on, Weather Man, give Leroy a break!

That is the prayer of Hoosier track fans as they look forward to the State Meet to be held at Tech on Saturday. Trials will begin at 10 a. m. and the cinder finals at 2 p. m.

The center of interest will be Leroy Johnson, Mishawaka's lanky high-jumper who already has leaped 6'7 3/4". That's the best in the nation this year, and the third best by a prep athlete in U.S. history.

Leroy has set his sights on 6-8 in his last high school effort, and given dry footing he might make it. But given the kind of weather we had last year (and which is predicted for this weekend), he will be lucky to clear his own height (6-4).

ANOTHER LONG BOY making his farewell appearance will be Bill Satterfield, Richmond's defending titlist in the 100 and 220-yard dashes.

Looks like the elongated Red Devil will have to try (for once) in order to beat swift Lloyd Robbs of Terre Haute Wiley, also a tan competitor.

In last week's Regionals, Robbs posted times of :10 and :21.9, while the best Satterfield could do (or felt he had to do) was :10.1 and :22.6.

Of course Bill may be running harder than he looks. (He looks like he's walking with big steps.) Pushing the favorites to the tape in the dash events will be Curt Childress of Muncie Central, Ray Carter of Tech, Pete Lundell of Ft. Wayne North Side, Dick Haskell of Hammond and Gerald Graham of South Bend Central, among others.

JOHN KELSO OF Ft. Wayne Central is favored in the 440, but should get stiff competition from Art DeBow of Terre Haute Germantown and Mishawaka's Johnson.

A couple of Gary Roosevelt boys to watch are Aaron Walker in the broad jump and Rufus Williams in the low hurdles.

Among the favorites in the shot put will be John Coalmon like we basketball fans have heard that name before.

Dave Underly of South Bend Central and Ron Nelson of Hammond will be among the pole vaulters.

Attucks has only one boy qualified, but he's a freshman. Detroit Spencer will be in the mile.

THE MEET AS USUAL will be decided in the relays. Fastest four-some in the 880 event appears to be Wiley (1:31.4), with Muncie Central, South Bend Central and Ft. Wayne North also Regional winners.

In the mile relay it's North Side (3:26.1), with Roosevelt, Richmond and Germantown rated not far behind.

Tech Romps To Victory In Regional

By CHARLES PRESTON

Tech made a surprisingly strong showing in running away with the local Regional track meet last week.

The Greenclads rolled up 33 3/4 points and qualified seven men and both relay teams for this week's Finals. Only other teams in the state qualifying two relay squads were Ft. Wayne North and Gary Roosevelt.

Richmond and Muncie Central tied for second with 21 each in the local show on a slow track.

ATTACKS HAD A bad afternoon. All of Al Spurlock's competitors were washed away except freshman Detroit Spencer, who placed 3rd in the mile.

Henry Marks was in a three-way tie for 4th in the high jump, along with Bill Dunlap of Tech, but both lost the toss of the coin to David Emes of Muncie Central.

Richmond's Bill Satterfield was the day's standout individual. "Easy Bill" took both dashes and anchored the winning mile relay team.

Others in the quartet were Jeff Haynes, Lynthus Lewis and Dave Ramsey.

Muncie Central came home first in the 880-yard relay, with Curt Childress, Cammie Childress, John McKeever and Dan Oyler carrying the mail.

OTHER QUALIFIERS for the State Meet included Curt Childress, 2nd in the 100 and 3rd in the 220; Ray Carter of Tech, 3rd in the 100 and 4th in the 220; Fred Wilkerson, Muncie Central, 2nd in the half-mile; Nat Johnson, Anderson, 3rd in the high hurdles and 3rd in the broad jump; and Lynn Satterfield, Richmond, 4th in the broad jump.

They have two sisters. Tech was second in both relays. Running for the Greenclads in the half-mile relay were Mel Bradford, Rein Leetmae, Ray Akers and Carter.

The mile foursome comprised Bill Bradford, Dick Johnson, Roscoe Fields and Floyd Romack.

North Side's defending champs are favored to take home the team loving cup, but it doesn't always work out that way.

Calhoun Sweeps Sticks in CIAA

BALTIMORE (ANP)—Lee Calhoun, Olympic hurdles champion from Gary, Ind., turned in an outstanding individual performance last week though his team placed third in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship meet.

A double winner, Calhoun took the 120-yd. high hurdles in :13.7 and the 220-yard low hurdles in :23.4. He also ran formidable third leg in the Eagles' mile relay victory.

Calhoun's times in the hurdles were :13.8 and :23.4 last year. He is slated No. 1 high hurdler in the nation in the current NCAA listings.

Big Pre-Race Breakfast Dance At Green Lantern in Anderson

NOTE: The following column appeared in this space on November 9, 1946, and is being reproduced this week in order to satisfy certain readers . . .

THE AVENOO, MY DEAR FRANS, is the thoroughfare of dreams, heartaches, pain and grief . . . The midway where hep chicks and over-hepped wags try to beat out a spiel from early morn to midnite dusk . . . where kept she-bas play hard while their sweet patooties are busy grinding in the gravy in order that they have no worries about when the land-prop jumps in port . . . Here you'll find all the smart boys collaring a beef with their pockets lined with gold, and tellin' all and sundry that it's downright silly to be poor . . . Where tender dumplings play "Shoo Shoo Baby" from one soft touch to another all day long . . . Where hard playin' women vie for honors with the men for the luscious dumplings who don't know the score . . . And brother, do they lay a mean jive . . . ? These young quillies simply eat it up and before you know it they are off and gone like old time corn pone . . . Here you'll find the 'sweet luecy' boys gathering at 7 a. m. waiting for the liquor emporiums to open so they can get their gander up for the day . . . Hard liquor drinkers are ever on the watch for a dime or two-bit-pickup so they can take their turn at the bottle and make merry along the street of faded hopes and beat shebas.

THE WELL DRESSED BOYS? who promenade thrice daily in a change of togs draw a lotta of oohs and ahs from the feminine crop, especially the old and tired sisters, who years ago were beat for their mufti . . . Then you'll find the old ladies brigade making a hefty pull for the young blades with an offering of wine, mazuma and togs . . . Of course, don't forget that the men whose lights have long since dimmed, are equally in haste for tender prey . . . On the stem you'll find those handsome lads who absolutely refuse to work, and are always out lookin' for new game to sample a lotta jive upon . . . Some of these boys are good and they seem to be making it pay off in dividends . . . It's a common sight to see a well dressed guy in a fine looking gas buggy making the pawn shops every Monday a. m. with a package under his arm. Hitting the stroll on rubber is the height of the average Avenooite's ambition. How he gets it makes little difference . . . Living the life of ease, always puttin' on the squeeze seems to be the freeze.

THE JOY SPOTS, suds mills and eateries seem to be doing a landoffice bizz, with the drink emporiums taking the heaviest toll . . . Stickups, rapes and assaults rend the air nite and politely, while police sirens can be heard all through the nite wailing their solemn song . . . Squad cars dime a dozen from dawn till dawn, and at times it looks like the police department is on dress parade . . . Trolleys passing up the weary traveler in search of a lighter point job (color), while our folk catch h—l for being late to work . . . Bootleg cabs running to and fro and doin' a world of bizz . . . Some of course are not on the up and up, and you stand a chance of anything happening to you when you grab one . . . Here you'll find more Negro business men buying property than a few years back . . . Somebody seems to have put their boots on and laced 'em sky high . . . Everything goes along this stem from larceny to murder . . . Cussin' holds the spotlight daily all up and down the street . . . Nobody seems to care about anybody else . . . It's just each for himself and the devil take the hindmost . . . The gamblers take the street and it's hard to pass certain places any time during the day or nite if weather warm . . . 'Tis ever thus!

FIRE WAGONS COMING like mad to discover it's a false alarm . . . Ambulances meeting each other all day long with siren screaming and pedestrians and autos scurrying for cover . . . The police emergency wagon is always on the tail end but, nevertheless, always in there trying . . . Now and then the sheriff's car or state police will open wide their siren and take the stem like Grant took Richmond . . . The street where you'll find the city has neglected to lower the curb at Missouri and the Canal, just over the Yellow Bridge . . . We've seen many a guy and gal do harm to their backsides from a fall over this curb . . . It is not an uncommon sight to see the bridge lined with people looking to see a head bobble in the lazy waters of the Canal after hearing that some female or male had drowned their sorrows in dream in this suicidal stream.

BARBER SHOPS ARE STILL charging 1 semoleon for a haircut and restaurants are still charging like the ofay exclusive joints downtown . . . Pawnbrokers are waxing rich because they always have what the other fellow needs, and you know what we mean . . . Where you can always see a shapely pair of limbs with a cute face, long hair and fine brown frame . . . Where somebody always want to play . . . You'll also find the sophisticates, morons, freaks, lady lovers, chislers, giffs, milt men and downright moochers . . . Everybody is out to do or be done . . . Monday is "Blue" so they say and they spend most of their time beatin' out their favorite tune on some late model juke box . . . Where Negro businesses are still using ofay juke machines with the claim that our own operators won't give them the correct service.

THIS IS THE STREET known far and wide as the spot where you can lose your old lady overnight and get another at the same time . . . where baseball tickets, policy and numbers take a much too heavy toll and everybody seemingly have larceny in their hearts . . . Where you occasionally hear that so and so has just clipped the joint for $500 or a $1000 bucks on 208 or 906 and the grand rush begins . . . Where a certain ofay joint runs all day and nite and certain Spook joints dare to raise their shaggy head. Where the politicians are always on the turn and those from downtown visit every election year. Where we see all kinds of Negro detectives except two homicide men.

This, my frans is INDIANA AVENOO—the street that starts at a pawnshop and ends at a hospital. Note: things have changed since this was written almost 11 years ago . . . So be sure and note the changes as you read each paragraph . . . We're sure you'll get a kick out of the way people lived in '46.

BREEZING ALONG WITH THE NEWS . . . Thanks for those compliments on our piece about Denver Ferguson . . . Better still—tell it to the BOSS . . . It might hike our paycheck, who knows? . . . James Payne, the well known bondsman, was in Monday 2 wks. back to tell us that his office is now located at 25th and Northwestern . . . Leroy

One of the youngest stars around these parts who is certain to make good in the musical world is that great guy CANTRELL MITZS. The cat has what it takes to go to the top of the heap you wanta believe it when we tell you. "Chubby" as he is called by his many friends started on the trombone some years back in the Attucks High School Band.

After leaving school, started with Duke Hampton, who at that time, had a large orchestra which was fast making a name over the country including winning a national newspaper poll. About a year or so ago Cantrell formed his own crew playing such spots as the late 303 Club, Tropicana Club, Sunset Terrace Ballroom and the Illinois Cocktail Lounge.

Oh yes, we forgot to inform you that "Chubby" wails 'much' drums on the sideline. In fact, the cat is an all around musician and is very well liked by all who know him. We understand at the present time he is currently playing one nites over the state with his hard pushing group.—(B.W.)

'The Tattered Dress' And 'Dillinger' Headline Big Bill At Walker Sunday

Courtroom dramas, when well done, are among the most absorbing of films, and Universal-International's "The Tattered Dress," which opens Sunday at the Walker Theatre, has a taut, suspenseful story that is not only well produced but superbly acted.

Filed in CinemaScope, the picture boasts a five-star cast—namely Jeff Chandler, Jeanne Crain, Jack Carson, Gail Russell and Elaine Stewart—in its leads, and they are backed up by such accomplished performers as George Tobias, Edward Andrews and Philip Reed.

Chandler gives perhaps the finest performance of his career as a brilliant criminal lawyer hired to defend Reed on a charge of murder in a small California desert resort town. He wins the case but then is forced into court to defend himself against a jury-bribing charge trumped up by a corrupt sheriff, expertly played by Jack Carson. Thus there are two thrilling trial sequences in this film and it is difficult to say which is the more dramatic.

This is the kind of picture in which every actor seems inspired to give his best. Performances by Miss Crain, as Chandler's estranged wife; Miss Russell, as the woman used to frame Chandler, and Elaine Stewart, as the predatory, two-timing wife of Reed, are remarkable in their delineation of character, and it is safe to say that none of the players has ever appeared to better advantage.

JEFF CHANDLER'S ESTRANGED WIFE, Jeanne Crain, comes back to him when he gets into serious trouble and is offering him a drink to steady his nerves in this scene from Universal-International's "The Tattered Dress," which starts Sunday at the Walker

Miss Stewart, turned platinum blonde for this role, emerges as a new screen personality. Hers is a flashy role and she makes the most of it.

This is a picture of mounting climaxes, with one thrill after another, for, though it is essentially a courtroom drama, there are three murders and the story is never static. For comedy relief, there is George Tobias, comedian friend of Chandler's who eventually, however, becomes another tragic victim of the evil sheriff.

Produced by Albert Zugsmith, the picture is excellently directed by Jack Arnold from a literate, eloquent and exciting script, written by George Zuckerman.

Companion pic is "Dillinger," starring Laurence Tierney and revealing the true life story of Indiana's crime lord.

MUSICAL UPBEAT

by BOB WOMACK

HELO FANS! We are glad to be back with you after a short rest, believe me when I tell you. Before jumping into the local and national theatrical news we pause here, to send our deepest sympathy to the bereaved families of the late Denver D. Ferguson, who at one time was president of the largest sepiu theatrical agency in the country also owner of the Sunset Ballroom and Tavern here. Harold Malone, 83'er formerly with Jimmy Cole who lost his father too.

GIRL VOCALISTS There are many young ladies who would like to reach the top in the local singing world and later on to the big time. However from all indications there are only a few who could make the grade. The rest are heavy smokers, drinkers and are very hard to get along with the handleaders whose units feature them.

In some cases many newcomers who are lucky enough to be hired on high paying down town location jobs go-all-out for the owner-managers of the bistros, therefore appearing on the bandstand when they felt like it. Such happenings are common place here and over the country. We are wondering when the chicks in question will wake up and start working towards a career in the singing field?

TOP HEADLINERS The Illinois Cocktail Lounge is back on the bandstand. The "Beat," has been advised that HARVEY FRENCH and his new group are playing Fri., Sat. and Mon. nites there. Harvey recently recovered from a long illness. Here's wishing you much luck on your return to the musical world. Sorry we couldn't catch your grand opening.

Will Scott, bass former road manager for the Master, popular singing group, is now arranger for Glenn Douglass and his Tropic Club Combo who are going into their 22 week at the Eastside spot. We wish to thank blues-man Fred Christley and wife for the lovely time spent in their home recently. Fred is currently with Bill Stafford and his hard pushing unit Tenor sax-man Bill Roy and his Rockets are the talk of Daddy Ray's Cotton Club these days. Hubert "Fox" Earthy, drums, and his All-Stars worked the Elk's Club in Ft. Wayne on last Saturday nite.

MANY TAVERN OWNERS are trying and running the band-leaders who work for them. It is too bad but the facts are. What do some owners know about music, much less play it? This goes for the downtown

The great B. B. "Blues Boy" King and his celebrated dance band will be the featured attraction in a Roaring Twenties Cabaret and dance scheduled for the Southside Armory on Saturday nite, June 1. Remember the "Roaring Twenties"? — Well this dance is supposed to take your memory back to this exciting era and to give youngsters an insight of what went on during those years. It promises to be an exciting affair with all the thrills attached plus the tangy music of Mr. B. B. and crew.

Featured attraction will be that fabulous, exotic, interpretive dancer, Gay McDonald plus the Gamma Charleston Queens and the Gammorette Models. All of this plus the host who loves you most, Milt Nixon as M. C. B. B. will feature such hot numbers as "On My Word of Honor," "How Do I Love You So" and many others. Dancing will be from 8 until 1 a.m.

The Armory is located at 2015 South Pennsylvania St. Remember this is a date you cannot afford to break, so get your tickets NOW. A limited number of choice reserved tables will be available at the door. Other tables are FREE. Tickets now on sale at Edwards Record Shop, Bruce Pharmacy, Recorder office, Bar-B-Q Heaven (both places).

The gala affair is under the sponsorship of the Gamma Chapter, Tau Gamma Delta Sorority.

Capacity Crowd Awaits Dinah Washington, Eddie Chamblee At Tomlinson Hall Sunday

star Dinah Washington in nite club setting some time ago in Hollywood with charming chanteuse Sarah Vaughan also present. This is just about the greatest assembly of vocal talent—expensive too. Don't fail to dig Miss Washington at Tomlinson Hall on Sunday nite, May 26. Tickets are now on sale in your neighborhood.

'Dizzy' Anxious To Defend Himself To Senate Critics Wires Senator He Will Appear Before Committee

Once in a while an advertising copywriter gets carried away by a bright idea and lives to rue the day. Such an event happened recently when a Canadian display ad for Epic recording of "I Put a Spell On You" and noticed a line which promised: "Dee Jays, give this one a spin. If you get tired we'll get you a job."

So the jockey played record all night long and the station decided to dispense with his services. Epic and its parent company, Columbia, are now the spot to make good their promise. Maybe the guy could have the job of whom ever thought up to make good their promise. Maybe the guy could have the job of whom ever thought up to make good their promise.

Moviemaker Zanuck Offers To Pay For Race Movies

MEXICO CITY — (AP)—Following reports he saw from Charlotte, N. C., indicating that theaters in that state and in South Carolina would face penalties for showing the film "Island In The Sun", moviemaker Darryl F. Zanuck said he would pay any fines levied on theatres for presenting the film.

The offer came after a legislative committee had warned movie operators in the two Carolinas not to show the movie, which deals with interracial romance in the West Indies and features Harry Belafonte, Joan Fontaine and Dorothy Dandridge. As a result of a bill introduced in South Carolina, any movie house showing the film would be hit with a $5,000 fine. The film is to be released next month.

Said Zanuck, "to penalize a film before it is seen is the worst kind of censorship. This reminds me of the burning of books in Germany by Hitler."

JAMES GHEE

Services for James Ghee, 64, 1031 W. 27th who died at his home Monday, May 20, were held May 22 at the Patton Funeral Home with burial in Crown Hill.

Born in Virginia, he lived here 45 years. He was employed at the Athenaeum vaudeville club before retiring five years ago. He was a member of First Baptist Church, North Indianapolis.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Ivy Draughn Ghee and a sister, Mrs. Ella Burton of Oberlin, O.

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CNS)—Dizzy Gillespie is anxious to go to Washington and defend the value of the State Department sponsored trips taken by his jazz band to the Near East, Africa and Latin America. Some Senators have been extremely critical of the group and cited it has made more money than the President of the United States. Gillespie's group is being paid $6,250 per week.

Dizdiz in retaliation has already wired Majority Leader of the Senate, Lyndon Johnson who has been one of his severest critics, that he would be happy to appear before the Texas Senator's committee between May 20th—23rd to show the good will the group is creating. So far, Johnson has not picked up the invitation.

The most recent anti-Gillespie remark made has come from Senator William E. Jenner of Indiana: "We could not find any way to use the majestic power of America to give a little help to the Hungarians when they were fighting for their freedom. But now that their struggles are over, we are going to send them Dizzy Gillespie or another jazz band."

JUDY TYLER TO WIN ELVIS PRESLEY IN 'JAILHOUSE ROCK'

Luckiest young actress in Hollywood is teen-age Judy Tyler who has been signed by MGM as the girl who is wooed and won by the bobby-sox darling, Elvis Presley, in "Jailhouse Rock."

This is the first important picture for Miss Tyler, who comes to MGM via the New York stage and television. The pert brunette portrays a record company promotion girl who encourages Presley in pursuing a singing career.

"Jailhouse Rock" incidentally, is also the title of one of six new songs Presley will sing in the picture.

Teen Talk

By THE SNOOPER

Dear Snooper,

Hi, lovers! Here I am back for another week to tell of the unsuspecting people that were caught in my web. But before I get started with this week's gossip I would like to tell of a letter I received from one of my faithful readers. Here is the letter word for word:

I really enjoy your article very much. All of the teenagers really look forward to it every week. The Recorder is the only paper I read every week.

Sincerely,
Cassandra Blaine

Cassandra, I really want to thank you for thinking enough of the column to send in such a letter.

Now let's get started with the gossip:

Jerome Gooch, who is the girl you've been singing "Don't Be Cruel" to? Could her name be any chance be Cecile Wynn? What do you have to say about this, Cecile? I hear that Raymond Satterfield and Ronald Thomas are still looking for mates. Could it be that they have their eyes on Stephanie and Mar Cox? It looks as if the Snooper has picked up on another triangle. This time the members are Fletcher Wiley, Vickie Porter and Larry Jones. Say, Vickie which one is it going to be?

THE WORD IS OUT that Joyce Montgomery is singing "Why Did You Have to Go?" to Ray Satterfield. Zeto Ross and Catherine Dowdell seem to make an ideal couple. Martha Boyd, could it be you like a boy with the initials of L. P.? Would someone please tell me what happened to Betty Sue Turner and Walter Mayes? They seemed like they were an ideal couple. Here is good news: Yvonne Roney and Hubert Smith are making a cute couple. Theresa Dunnigan is still singing "Send Me Some Lovin'" to Michael Senmore. Renee Grant and Clarence Franklin were really for each other. Pinky Jones, a certain girl on the Northside is head over heels over you. Charles Nelson, why don't you give the other girls a chance while Joyce Ladd makes up her mind? Sonny Miller, it's good to hear you and Nina Crenshaw are going steady. Peter Goodall, you and Wanda Harris would make a nice couple. Why not give love a chance? Carol Williams, we hope you and Ben Allen will continue the good job you are doing with love.

John Charleston and Linda Tribune made a nice couple at the Junior Prom. Say, Geraldine Cosby, who's it going to be, Johnny Thomas or Donald Crayton?

Annette Lewis, who is that cute boy called William you've seen so often with? I heard Janet Griffin had a real tough party last Saturday nite. The kids I hear didn't act as they usually do. We're very proud of you kids. Jean William, what is this I hear about you going to be on Cloud No. 9 pretty soon? I hear all the boys are trying to talk to Florence Johnson, but she is like ce. Maybe she just doesn't talk much or maybe she has a secret over somewhere.

I HEAR that Sherry Bonner can't make up her mind between George Washington and Monroe Owens. What has happened to Jerry Bundy and Rose Welker these days? Freddie Moore is going over on the Eastside every weekend. Wonder whom he could be going to see?

A hear that Ronnie Lightfoot has asked Linda Redmond for a chance. What was the answer, Linda?

Well that's that for this week. Keep the letters coming in, children!
